

Athens, June 4, 2008

Announcement

TERNA ENERGIKI S.A. announces to the Investors that a restatement has been made to the Note 5 of the Additional elements and information of the published Data and Information for the period January the 1st to March the 31st 2008, following relevant directions by the Hellenic Capital Market Committee. The restatement has as follows:

“5. The accumulated income tax provisions, for the unaudited fiscal years, amount to euro 100 thousand for the company and 150 thousand for the group. The accumulated provisions for receivables that are contested or under arbitration amount to euro 271 thousand for the company and 406 thousand for the group. The accumulated other provisions amount to euro 131 thousand for the company and 528 thousand for the group.”

The restated Data and Information for the period January the 1st to March the 31st 2008 that comprise the above statement have been submitted to the Athens Stock Exchange as well as to the Hellenic Capital Market Committee and are posted on our website.